

SILVER THREAD VINEYARD

Riesling “Good Earth Vineyard” 2025

A vibrant, medium dry Riesling made with 100% organically grown grapes.

Residual sugar: 11.1 g/L (1.1%) / TA: 6.05 g/L / pH: 2.87 / Alcohol by Volume: 11.1%

Cases produced: 100

Tasting notes: Aromas of white tea, peach, apricot, blossom, pear, and shale. A bright, medium finish with a pop of acidity makes this Riesling an easy wine to pair with food.

Vineyard & Vintage notes: Planted in 2023, Good Earth Riesling has only been farmed with 100% organic methods and materials. A small crop was hand-harvested from these young vines in early October 2025. The growing season started relatively rainy, but concluded with two months of drought conditions, which made the grapes small and concentrated for outstanding winemaking.

Winemaker notes: It was fermented with native yeasts. 15% of the volume was fermented in neutral oak barrels, the remainder was fermented in stainless steel. The fermentation was arrested to preserve a medium-dry level of sweetness in order to emphasize the fruitiness of the young vines.

Cellaring: Bottled in January 2026, the wine was bottle-aged for six months prior to release. It can be enjoyed while fresh and young, but will also age gracefully for 5-8 years.

Accolades: Platinum Medal, Finger Lakes International Wine Competition
